Who Is He?

It Can't Surely be Our Edward
Wearing a Blanket

(Los Angeles Times)

Registering from Red Deer, Canada wherever that is on the big map of the Dominion—the traveler in a little round hat walked into the lobby of the Hotel Alexandria this morning with a great burden of wraps in his arms. He looked like he might have been a dealer in cast-off garments returning from a successful morning at the back doors of the affluent. He had a tall, thin man, wearing his hair a la Laurier, and his face glowed like one of those colored jugs with a light behind it in a drug store window.

"Front!" approached him in respectful, expectant attitude, holding out an arm to receive the freight of Canadian life-preservers. The man from the North, without noting, or heeding the slender build of the human coat rack which confronted him began to relieve himself of his burden. Upon the minion's arm he first flung a fur-lined overcoat, with collar designed to cover the ears. Following that came another overcoat; a huge pair of hairy gloves; a short blanket coat, and at last a tall wooden wear; a great scarf of wool; a fur cap, and last of all, a thick blanket, striped with warm, comfortable, cheerful hues, with collar designed to cover the ears.

"That'll hold you for a while," sighed the Canadian, abstractedly, working upon his feet also foreclosed with his handkerchief, "that'll hold you for a while."

"The minion returned with the check." "I wanted to get out of my sight for a day or two," said the traveler from far Northern places. "I just wanted to forget 'em."

Horn Hill Methodist Church

On Sunday, Jan. 29th, the re-opening services will be held at 2:30 in the afternoon, when addresses will be given by Rev. C. H. Huestis, Mr. Springvale; Mr. Jas. Speakman, Antler Hill. Evening service at 7:30. Rev. C. H. Huestis, pastor, Methodist church, Red Deer, will be the preacher. Collection at each service in aid of church renovation fund.

On Thursday, Feb. 2nd, the pastor, Rev. J. Place, will give a lantern lecture. The subject will be "China and Korea and the Colonies." Admission 25 cents. Everybody welcome.

The collection in Knox Presbyterian Sabbath School next Sunday, Jan. 29th, for the Red Deer Lodge, will be given by Rev. C. H. Huestis, who will also address the congregation at 8 p.m. An invitation is given to parents and children sixteen years and under to attend. Admission free.

C. O. F. Entertainment

A most enjoyable evening's entertainment was indulged in by members and friends of Red Deer Lodge, Canadian Order of Foresters in the Oddfellows' Hall on Friday evening last. The first part of the evening's entertainment was a program, in which Messrs. Clarke, Campbell, Thompson, Rev. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Clutterbuck, Mr. and Mrs. Bookes and the orchestra took part. The comic singing of Messrs. Campbell and Clarke was particularly good. Mr. White, assistant organizer, gave address bearing on the order, and Mr. Ayres also made a brief address. The chair was occupied by T. A. Gaetz, Chief Ranger of the lodge, in a most efficient manner. At the conclusion of the program, lunch was served, and everybody seemed to have a good time. When all had been served the dishes were removed, the floor cleared, and the orchestra struck up the Circassian circle, and soon the company were enjoying the mazes of the dreamy waltz. The entertainment closed shortly after midnight, all present having had a most enjoyable time.

ALBERTA'S RIGHTS.

Premier Sifton made a strong speech before the Toronto Canadian Club, Monday, making a vigorous plea for control of our timber and mines in his remarks, and asking them to go one better and demand control of our lands also. Equal rights for Alberta should be our slogan.

Odious Comparisons

Dear Editor: Will you allow space in your paper to reply shortly to Dr. Grant's friend, and pass a few remarks on the doctor's methods. First I would thank the doctor's friend for the straight way he has answered the questions. But the proposition he makes of the doctor's diffusing knowledge in return for the revenue he is deriving is simply ridiculous. I believe the knowledge that he proposes to diffuse in the doctor's course of lectures of very questionable character. I don't think it would be beneficial for the moral and educational welfare of this new province. From what I gather from answering the questions by the doctor's friend, I have come to the conclusion that the doctor when he wrote his epistles to the Advocate had in his mind's eye himself and his friends, and as it is a difficult thing for a man to kick himself, the doctor concluded to kick some others, although less deserving than the ones he had in his eye. He specially directed his attack against real estate men, although there was really no one but what was in the doctor's wide swath. There are thousands in this province who can point to the real estate man as the first rung in their ladder of success in their reputable methods of bringing buyer and seller together, and was of mutual benefit to the three parties concerned, and all the recompense they received was five per cent. of what actually changed hands. Now let us draw a little comparison with what the doctor puts in practice. First he collects, according to his friend, seven hundred per cent. and pays one hundred per cent. to his client. Then let us see what happened when the treacherous waters of the Red Deer river, on more than one occasion, prevailed against energy and labor of enterprising men, and swept nearly all the available resources from what had been taken off the limits mentioned in the question. Did the doctor forego collecting his pound of flesh? Not by any means; not only one but seven pounds from what was practically a bare bone, and should have gone to the workmen, that spent their time, energy and money. The doctor poses as a guardian angel against encroachments of anyone getting a dollar he does not earn, but you see his theory and practice are quite at variance, for surely the doctor and his friends must hold the record for getting rake-offs. I will give the doctor a prescription if he will compound it and take the medicine that I am satisfied will cure his malady. The next thing he has an attack of conscience and feels constrained to write, let him take his pen and write, not only things against other people, but a dose of separation, separating himself from all rake-offs that he is deriving out of material resources of the country, and deed it to some charitable institution, not forgetting the Red Deer Memorial Hospital at the time, and I am sure that the doctor will feel himself a new man, and at peace with the world and everybody in it. Hoping to be excused for taking so much of your space,

I remain yours,

ONE WHO HAS HAD

EXPERIENCE.

EVARTS

Last Thursday eve Hans Olsen gave a very enjoyable time to his friends and neighbors, the event being his wedding dance. Luncheon was served by Mrs. Olsen, and all had a pleasant one. We extend our good wishes to Mr. and Mrs. H. Olsen.

Owing to the severe cold spell lately business was rather quiet, but things are beginning to stir up again.

We are looking forward to the ringing of wedding bells soon. Mrs. Hannah Olsen, of B.C., is visiting in this vicinity. Being a former resident here, her friends are pleased to welcome her once more.

A box social and dance will be given in the Gaetz school on Friday, Jan. 27th. Proceeds are for school purposes, we understand.

Fire destroyed the home of Mr. Bergstrom, of Medicine Valley, a few days ago.

We miss the smiling face of one who went from here a short time ago. May prosperity attend her in her distant home.

Old Timers Meet

Organize and Elect Officers
For Year

The annual meeting of the Wasikase Old Timers' Association was held in the Oddfellows' Hall on Saturday afternoon last, with James Beatty, President, in the chair. There was a goodly number of members present, and the association got down to business and evinced a growing desire for a strong organization in Red Deer. Among those present were A. T. Stephenson, Capt. Cottingham, S.M. Bannerman, W. Cassels, W. Piper, C. Cruickshanks, Jos. Cole, G. W. Smith, E. Plumb, Fred Ray, Reg. Alford, J. A. Carwell, A. McBlain, P. Pidgeon, A. Plumb, James Beatty, E. Chappell, Geo. W. Greene, Frank Piper, T. P. Parcells, R. Leithard, Stephen Wilson, and others.

James Beatty, the retiring president, explained that he was no orator but, nevertheless, he felt kindly towards the association for selecting him as the head of the association for the past year, but thought the honors should be passed around. He would not again be a candidate for the office of President.

The financial statement of the retiring secretary, J. A. Carwell, showed a balance on hand of $9.00 after all indebtedness was paid. P. Pidgeon and A. T. Stephenson were appointed auditors, who examined the books and found everything correct, and their report was adopted.

A hearty vote of thanks was tendered the retiring officers for the past year.

The question of a banquet for the present winter was discussed, and the question was referred to the executive committee with power to act.

There is every probability that there will be a banquet about the end of February.

The President said he was pleased to learn that there had been no deaths among members of the association the past year, but one of our old members, Mr. Bannerman, had met with a great sorrow in the loss of his wife, and a standing vote of sympathy was extended to the bereaved one. On motion of A. T. Stephenson and James Beatty, in the loss he has sustained by the death of his estimable wife.

Bannerman made a brief reply, thanking the association for their kind sympathy.

It was decided to thank the members of the association.

A hearty vote of thanks was tendered Mr. Michener for the use of the hall, after which the meeting adjourned to the call of the President.

Baptist Church Meeting

The annual meeting of the members of the Red Deer Baptist church was held on Wednesday evening last, 18th inst., in the church. There was not as large a turnout as last year, owing to a number of the congregation having removed from town, however the affairs of the church were found in a good condition, and every effort is being made to maintain the good standing of the church held during the past few years. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Deacons, J. W. Broughton, E. R. Hill and A. S. Carr. Finance Committee, E. R. Hill, A. S. Carr, J. Cook and S. E. McKee. Treasurer, James Mann, Clerk, J. Cook, Sunday School Superintendent, A. S. Carr. Auditor, Miss J. MacKinnon. Steward, J.W. Broughton. Ushers, C. Broughton, J. Cook and H. F. Clarke.

NOTICE TO MEMBERS OF CON-
VOCAION OF THE UNIVER-SITY OF ALBERTA.

In accordance with the provisions of the Act respecting the University of Alberta with regard to elections, notice is hereby given to all members of Convocation that nominations will be received up to the 31st day of January for Chancellor and members of the Senate. Any three members of Convocation may nominate a candidate for either of these offices. No special forms are required but nominations are to be made in writing addressed to the Registrar, University of Alberta, Strathcona. After the nominations have all been received, the Registrar will forward voting papers with complete instructions to all members of Convocation, and the ballots must be in the hands of the Registrar by the 8th day of March.

Anything in FURNITURE Wanted?

Not having found a buyer for my stock on bloc, I will sell to the general public at practically wholesale prices, so if you are wanting anything in the line of Furniture that I have in stock, just call, and I will supply you, and guarantee satisfaction. Prices! I will not trouble to publish them. They would look like giving the goods away almost, as I am clearing out of the business, SURE.

Don't say Red Deer is not the place to buy property, when I can show you where property that I sold not a year back for some thousands has been sold lately for nearly as many thousands again, and to-day you could not buy from the last purchaser for a thousand dollars advance on what he bought at. That's better than Bank or Post Office interest.

Here's a good 7-Roomed House on Fifth Street North, with good basement divided for fruit and vegetables, good furnace. The whole is in first-rate condition, on 2 Lots, 50 x 200.

Price $2,925. Cash $1,500; balance arranged.
Or this—On Third Street South, a 5-Roomed house on two lots; a real nice home for $1,700. Only $100 cash.
On Fourth Street North, a 5-Roomed house on 2 Lots, well built. Only $2,000. Half cash.

Lots in Parkvale at $250 each. Or Acreage Lots on main road and close to town from $125. Also a Farm for $10 per acre.

U. F. A. CONVENTION.

BIG MEETING AT CALGARY.

James Bower Again Elected President.

The annual Convention of the United Farmers of Alberta was held at Calgary last Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. There was a large and representative gathering of farmers present, and a lot of important business was transacted.

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS.
President James Bower presented the following address:

I have the honor to submit to you my second annual report, at this third annual convention of the United Farmers of Alberta. We have again reason to feel and express our sense of deep gratitude and thankfulness to a kind Providence for the many blessings extended to us through the year. It is true that we have passed through a year of great drought, but even this has shown itself in many ways to have been a blessing in disguise, and must surely go a long way in teaching the ignorant and improvident, more prudent and intelligent methods, and in giving us the most sceptical a clearer conception of, and a firmer faith in, our beloved Alberta's varied natural resources.

GROWTH OF THE WORK.
During the year the work of our association has been assuming immense proportions. In the past years we have expressed a sense of gratification that new avenues of increased usefulness and influence have been opening up before us. These avenues are still opening and still widening before our vision; and may it be that our sense of true perspective, our integrity, wisdom and our ability to perform, may ever keep pace with our increased responsibilities. At our last convention, a vote was taken unanimously to carry out the interprovincial council, of which our executive were members, merged into a proposed national council, and in this Alberta has taken no mean part.

DEMANDS FOR FAIR PLAY.
The work of that council during the year has (I think I am justified in saying) been of most stupendous proportions and import. They have been the means of bringing about and consolidating a movement which has for its object the rights and liberties of the agricultural classes; a movement which has compelled the admiration and respect of the whole English speaking world, and has been responded to by our liberty loving citizens in a manner which hitherto unheard of, even in the annals of this liberty loving empire.

This movement took form at the time of the dominion premier's address to the west. It was then arranged that a consolidated effort be put forth to bring before the premier's notice the different matters of national interest which had been engaging the attention of the amalgamated associations for some time. While some of these matters have been the chief political issues between the parties for some years it is to the credit of the members of our Farmers' associations all over the dominion that they have lived up to the principle of the associations and risen superior to the calls of their past political party affiliations; and with a unanimity of purpose that means success, have stood shoulder to shoulder in their demands for fair play.

OTTAWA DELEGATION.
As a direct result of this movement, an inspiration has been given to many in different parts of the dominion who have never before heard the farmers come boldly forward and assert their rights. It has given heart and voice to many who had begun to despair of ever seeing anything but graft control the nation, and has created everywhere a desire for more complete organization. As a result of the organized effort, set forth by the associations during the premier's visit, an invitation was extended to them to send a delegation to Ottawa to confer further on the different matters. The Council followed this up by organizing a monster delegation, from among the branches, to go with the delegation to back up their requests. Many branches nobly responded, sending some 700 or 800 delegates to support the executive. The president of the council, having called the full board, your provincial executive decided to go in full force as did the other provinces; the only exception being where some members were too ill to attend. As you are all fully aware of the subject matter presented, it is needless for me to go into details; I just wish to say, however, that the Council decided to take up no new matter, but only such questions as had been fully discussed, and agreed upon by all the associations. So the nation saw a united front was formed, with an intelligent and enthusiastic support.

As to the result obtained by the delegation, as you know a very wide publicity has been given by the press to the farmers' requests at Ottawa, yet in very few cases has any hard-headed to criticism adversely the stand taken by the farmers. A splendid tribute indeed to the righteousness of the farmers' claims.

MUCH CRITICISM.
As to the reception we met with from the political parties, the thoughtless criticism on the one hand, and much self interested criticism on the other has been indulged in. This criticism is however altogether premature. The past or present attitude of the political parties does not count for much. Surely we have something further to say in the matter. If so political parties choose to turn a deaf ear to the farmers' requests, then so much the worse for the political parties. But be established and of the benefit which they would be to agriculture. The government was always willing to receive suggestions from the associations, such as the present, and would act on any made.

T. A. Crear, president of the Grain Growers' Grain Company, of Manitoba, spoke briefly. W. Green, organizer of the Saskatchewan Grain Growers, spoke on organization work. A resolution committee was appointed.

At the afternoon session of the Farmers' convention, addresses were read showing the association to be in a healthy condition. In the course of a healthy address, Hon. Duncan Marshall came out strongly for reciprocity. "Reductions of the tariff would go further than anything else to secure fair and equal prices to the farmers," he stated.

WEDNESDAY'S SESSION.
During the day, Joseph Fels, a millionaire soap dealer; F. E. Coulter, Secretary of the Direct Legislation League of Manitoba; Dr. Eggleston, of Portland, Oregon, and others addressed the meeting.

In the afternoon a large number of resolutions were taken up, some of which were vigorously discussed by the delegates, while others were passed without comment. The most noticeable feature of the afternoon session was the constant reference, always in support, to the movement for direct legislation, the referendum and recall. Almost every speaker referred to it. All who referred to it were enthusiastic.

OFFICERS FOR 1911.
Some of the officers were elected at the afternoon session, completing the list for 1911. The list of officers now stands as follows:

President—Jas. Bower, Red Deer.
Vice-President—W. J. Tregillus, Calgary.

Auditor—E. R. Hallberg, Ross Creek.

Directors-at-large—J. Speakman, Penhold; D. W. Warner, Edmonton; J. Gentry, Noble.

District Directors—S. Austin, Victoria; G. S. Long, Edmonton; J. E. Ostrander, Medicine Hat; J. E. Pointer, Strathcona; M. E. Sly, Calgary; E. Carswell, Red Deer; W. G. Buchanan, Macleod.

Of these, the president, vice-president and auditor are re-elected from last year.

G. H. Chipman, of the Grain Growers' Guide, Winnipeg, spoke during the counting of the ballots. He said he bore a message from his father, who as president of Nova Scotia association wished to tell the U.F.A. that the Nova Scotia farmers were in entire sympathy with them and desired to join hands with the farmers of the prairie provinces for the common good.

RESOLUTION COMMITTEE REPORTS.
The Resolution committee then brought down its report. They recommended several things to the delegates, among which a prominent place was given to this, that resolutions should be legibly written or typed on one side of the paper only. They also submitted a number of resolutions to the convention for consideration.

LONG LIST OF RESOLUTIONS.
There was a somewhat lengthy list of 22 resolutions to be considered at the afternoon session. On consideration it was found, however, that several of these could be grouped so as to materially facilitate disposing of them. In several cases two or more resolutions covered the same ground and in these cases the decision of one naturally settled the fate of the others. The first three taken up were for the purpose of expediting the carrying on of business.

Montreal, Jan. 19.—New plans of the C.P.R., as announced by Wm. Whyte, here includes 100 miles of double tracking and 330 miles of new track in the west. A short stretch between Port William and Port Arthur will be double tracked and work of the same kind will be continued between Winnipeg and Brandon. New yards will be laid out at Regina, Moose Jaw and Medicine Hat. Four new steel bridges will be erected.

The old sixty pound rails on the Manitoba and Northwestern branch will be replaced by eighty pound steel for a distance of about 160 miles.

From Lacombe east 60 miles of new line will be built. Starting from Wilkie 50 miles of new road will be built into the Tramping Lake district. From Swift Current, north-east 35 miles of new road will be built, and from Swift Current south-east there will be 45 miles. From Moose Jaw 53 miles will be built southwest. An addition of 50 miles will be made from Weyburn and an extension will be pushed west from Estabon 35 miles. Northwest from Wilkie 32 miles will be built into the Cut Knife country, a well settled district. A line will be built from Camagway to Okotoks, 26½ miles. The line from Golden, known as the Kootenay Central, which has now twenty miles of track, will be extended for another 40 miles.

Vice-President Whyte today made an absolute denial of Ottawa report that he is to retire from railway life to become Lieutenant Governor of Manitoba. He says there is nothing in the rumour. The C.P.R. did back a little to-day on decreased earnings, but there was good buying on decline.

Red Deer Win

From Innisfail

Innisfail Junior Hockey team came up and played the local boys a return game on Saturday afternoon last. It was an interesting game all the way through though the Red Deer goal was never in much danger. The game was played in three parts and at the end of the second part Red Deer was ahead by 4-0. In the last part the locals had it all their own way and won by 10-4. Roy and Cliff Malcolm, J. Krause and F. Reinhold did the scoring. For Innisfail P. Johnson in goal played the best game. W. Krause was referee. The boys deserved a larger crowd to see the game.

Political Battle in Rome.

Bourassa and Laurier Emissary Lemieux Strive for the Sympathy of the Pope.

Ottawa, January 18.—A Canadian political battle has just been concluded in Rome. As soon as Sir Wilfrid Laurier learned that Mr. Bourassa, the Quebec Nationalist leader, had gone to Rome to see the Pope, presumably to endeavor to secure the interests of his followers in the movement against the present Premier of Canada, the Government instructed Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, who was on his way back from South Africa, whether he had gone to represent Canada at the opening of the First Parliament of the new Dominion, to go also to Rome and represent the cause of Sir Wilfrid Laurier at the Vatican.

Both, therefore, were in the Italian Capital at the same time. Mr. Bourassa is supposed to have the advantage of the political sympathy of the French-Canadian clergy, and the recently discovered action of Archbishop Langevin advising his people to read Bourassa's paper, Le Devoir, has awakened the Liberals to the need of alertness. Quebec is the dominant factor in Canadian politics to-day as hitherto. Quebec is Catholic, and the efforts of the clergy are to be openly used in the interests of Bourassa and the Nationalists at the next election two years hence. Sir Wilfrid Laurier will be defeated.

Sifton Seeking Control of Lands

Surprise Expressed that the Saskatchewan Government Do Not Join in Demand.

Ottawa, Jan. 16.—Premier Sifton is here today seeing the members of the government regarding the taking over of the administration of the lands by the Province of Alberta. It is understood that the Alberta government has assumed a definite policy on control of their own lands. Continued surprise is expressed regarding the attitude of Saskatchewan, which allows enormous profits from their lands to go into the coffers of the Dominion government. It is constantly remarked that there is something underneath this which the public has not yet fathomed.

The experimental farm reports 60 bushels 35lb of spring wheat, 52 bushels of Alberta Red (winter wheat), 157 bushels of oats per acre. Geo. F. Root, officer in charge, says at $12.50 per acre which is equally productive.

Beef Raising in Canada

A copy of the bulletin entitled "Beef Raising in Canada," which has recently been issued by the Live Stock Branch at Ottawa may be obtained by addressing the Live Stock Commissioner, Department of Agriculture, Ottawa. In the preparation of this bulletin, every effort has been made to secure the most accurate and reliable data regarding the industry. The publication of this information, together with the views of experienced feeders and in many cases descriptions of the methods which they have found most successful, should be of considerable value to all interested in the subject.

Correspondence

Edkville, Alta., Jan. 20, 1911.
To the Editor of The News,

Sir,—As lovers of fair play, we beg to be allowed to answer, on behalf of the number of callers and boarders of Edkville Hotel, that cowardly, mean and ignorant attack made by Edkville correspondent in last week's issue. Does he not intimate that we have not received suitable and satisfactory attention under its present management, when he writes "A little more attention than they have been receiving in the past."

We have received such attention that it has frequently caused us to give utterance to the phrase, "Are they not kind; it is just like home." Doubtless, every reader understands this phrase except our correspondent, who, perhaps, spends so few evenings at home.

We, who have travelled so much, feel solely hurt that, about a place made most homelike, such a base, untrue charge should be made. Must they, if it was true, also feel sorely hurt, after laboring unceasingly and carefully in a neighborhood, so discouraging socially and morally, to have such an intimation as a departing reward. But we, who recognize their kindness, take this opportunity, like true friends, to inform everyone that we are sincerely thankful for the home like attentions that they have never failed to give us above every sacrifice. Attentions that very few feel free to give in any place. Kindness given impartially, for which one can at least return thanks, unless bigotry and private spite drown this, as must be the case of the correspondent, since it has happened frequently. If he is a man would one not look for an apology?

Heartily thanking you for your kindness in inserting above:

Fire Beyond Everts

Mr. Jonas Bergstrom and family, living four miles southwest of Everts met with a very serious loss on Saturday evening last, when their fine new house with its contents was burnt to the ground. The family were sitting at tea in the front room when smoke was noticed coming from the kitchen and when the door between was quickly opened the flames burst through the doorway with such force that it was impossible to save anything. All they saved was the clothes in which they stood and some outer clothing hastily snatched up on the way out. There was not time even to get some loose money in a drawer. Mr. Bergstrom had one of the best houses west of the Medicine and had just got the downstairs nicely furnished. Though there was some insurance his loss will be $1,000, not to speak of the great inconvenience of being without a home at this season of the year. Neighbors and friends have, however, shown practical proofs of sympathy with them in their loss.

Wedding Bells.

COSSINS—MARLES
A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. James Marles, Willowdale, on Wednesday noon when Wm. E. Cossins, of Springdale, was united in the bonds of holy matrimony to Eliza, second daughter of Mr. Marles. The ceremony was performed by Rev. T. A. Bowen in the presence of the immediate family and friends. After a generous marriage lunch and a few pleasant hours in the home the happy couple left for their home in Springdale, accompanied by the well wishes of all friends.

A Good Idea in Hair Treatment.

The trouble with most women's hair is that they won't take the time to give it proper treatment. If you want your hair to be healthy and beautiful, you must take care of it. You cannot expect to have splendid hair if you simply run a comb through it in the morning and let it fall on the outer edges with a brush—throw it into a braid—switch it over the head—pin it in a few hair pins—and let it go at that.

ESTRAY STEER.

Came onto the premises of the undersigned about the 1st of November, a black steer, about a year and a half old, no visible brand. Owner can have animal by proving property and paying expenses.

This is the Royal Mill that Cuts the Coffee.

Most Up-to-date Mill in the World.

We have installed in our store a new Royal Electric Coffee Mill. This machine is equipped with steel knives which cut the berry into practically uniform clean cut particles, instead of grinding and crushing it, as by the old method.

All Coffee Mills heretofore used will only crush the berry, mutilating the minute oil cells, allowing the Coffee Oil to evaporate, thus impairing the strength and flavor.

By this new process the little oil cells remain unbroken, the essential oil (food product), cannot evaporate and the coffee thus retains its fine, rich, aromatic flavor in its full strength.

This is one reason why a pound of coffee cut in this mill will make from twelve to fifteen cups more of full strength coffee than will any coffee ground in the old way. The Lover of Good Coffee finds here a richness of flavor never found in Coffee ground in the ordinary way.

Another feature about this Mill is that you may have your Coffee cut as fine as the finest sand and it will still be practically free from that fine dust which is produced by the old method of grinding. You will, therefore, always have a clear cup of coffee instead of muddy effect—a result of using the old style Mills.

Try a pound of our coffee cut on a Royal Mill and we know you will be pleased with the results.

CHAPTER X
CARABINIER

"SIGNOR!" began Hillard calmly, "before you ask will you not do me the honor to explain this ruse?"

"It is not he," said one of the carabinieri. "It is the master, and not the servant. This is Signor Hillard, is it not?" he continued, addressing himself to Hillard. "The signor has a servant by the name of Giovanni?"

"Yes, and what has he done to warrant this visit?"

"It is a matter of seven years," answered the spokesman. "Your servant attempted to kill an officer in Rome. I might have been interested in the case in Rome, thought he recognized Giovanni in the street today. Inquiries led us here."

"At my rate, it is though Giovanni had been forewarned of your visit," answered Hillard. "And may I ask what is the name of the officer Giovanni attempted to kill?"

"It is not necessary that you should know."

Hillard accepted the rebuke with becoming grace. "And now, signor, with the utmost courtesy, permit us to apologize for this intrusion. We shall wait in the hall, and if we find Giovanni we shall gladly notify you of the event."

"Hello! What's this?" exclaimed Hillard, going to the table when the officers had gone. It was a note addressed to him.

His kind master: The carabinieri are after me. But rest easy, I was not born to rot in a dungeon. I am going north. As for my clothes, send them to Giacomo, the baker, who lives on the road to El Deserto. He will understand. May the Holy Mother guard you should we never meet again!

Hillard passed the note to Merrivew. "That's too bad. I've taken a great fancy to him. It seems that the peasant has no chance on this side of the water. His child is a pained dancer in Paris and a prize on his own head. It's hard luck. And the fellow who caused all this trouble goes free."

"He always goes free, Dan, here or elsewhere."

"Why, we'd have lynched him in America."

"That's possible. We are such an impulsive race," ironically. "Yes, no doubt we'd have lynched him, and these foreigners would have added another ounce of fuel to their belief that we are still barbarians."

"I hadn't thought of that," Merrivew admitted.

Merrivew became impatient. "Now out with it. What was he and how did you learn that Kitty is in Venice?"

Hillard told him briefly. "And so they are all in Venice, broke? By George, here's our everlasting gratitude and all that! We'll bail 'em out and ship 'em home! How is that for a bright idea?"

"Let me see," said Hillard practically. "There are five of them—five hundred for tickets and doubtless five hundred more for unpaid hotel bills. It would never do, Dan, unless we wish to go home with them."

"But I haven't touched my letter of credit yet. I could get along on two thousand."

"Not with the brand of cigars you are smoking, 30 cents each."

"No; we can't bail them out, but we can ease up their bills till money comes from home. Not one of them by this time will have a watch. O'Mally will remain sober from dire necessity. Poor Kitty Kittigrew! All the wonderful shops and not a silver in her pockets!"

Merrivew paced the floor for some time, his head full of impossible schemes. He stopped in the middle of the room with an abruptness which portended something.

"I have it. Instead of going directly to Venice, we'll change the route and go to Monte Carlo. I'll risk my four hundred, and if I win—"

"Then the announcement cards, a house wedding and pictures in the New York papers. Dan, you are impossible. You have gambled enough to know that when you are careless of results you win, but never when you need the cash. But it is Monte Carlo if you say so. Two or three days there will cure you of your beautiful dream. After all, with a second thought, it's a good cause, and it might be just your luck to win. The missing link! Monte Carlo it is."

Merrivew danced a jig. Hillard stepped to the mirror and bowed profoundly. The jig ceased.

"Madame, permit me, a comparative stranger, to offer you passage money home. We won it at Monte Carlo. It is yours. Puisse enough, mused Hillard, "but hanged if it sounds proper."

"To the dance with propriety!" cried Merrivew buoyantly. "We'll start tomorrow!"

From her window Kitty looked down on the Campo, which lay patched with black shadows and moonshine. How

HE KNEW WHAT FIXED HIM UP

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS CURED S. D. VICAR'S LUMAGO

He suffered three years, but the great Canadian Kidney Remedy made short work of his trouble.

Edenbridge, Sask. (Special).—"It was one box of Dodd's Kidney Pills that fixed me up. This is the cheerful answer Mr. Sam D. Vicar is giving his inquiring neighbors in this district. Everybody here knows that for three years he has been suffering from lumago. Now he's strong and well again."

"My lumago developed from a cold," Mr. Vicar goes on to say. "My head would ache. I was always tired and nervous. I had a bitter taste in my mouth in the morning, was troubled with dizzy spells, and was always thirsty. The doctor told me I had lumago, but it didn't help me. Dodd's Kidney Pills cured me."

Dodd's Kidney Pills went straight to the root of the trouble. They cured his kidneys. The cure was so simple, the acid uric acid of the blood and Mr. Vicar's lumago vanished. Dodd's Kidney Pills are no cure-all. They simply cure sick kidneys. They never fail to do that.

At night was this fairy city in the snow. There were no horse clatters over the stone pavements, no trams, no omnibuses. The stillness which was of peace lay over all things. And some of this stillness was in the heart of Mr. Vicar.

But for one thing the hour would have been perfect. Kitty, ordinarily brave and cheerful, was very homesick and homesick. The dismal future of it all! She had danced, sung, spoken her lines the very best she knew how, and none had noticed or encouraged her. It was all over. Why should she live here with such a torture hanging round her neck?

"Kitty!" The voice came from the doorway. Kitty was startled for a moment, but it was only La Signorina. Kitty hurriedly wiped her eyes.

"I am over here by the window. The moon was so bright I did not light the lamp."

La Signorina moved with light step to the window, bent and caught Kitty's face between her hands and turned it firmly toward the moon.

"You have been crying, Kitty. 'You poor little homeless bird!' La Signorina seized Kitty impulsively in her arms. 'If I were not!' She hesitated.

"If I were not?"

"If I were not poor, but rich instead, I'd take you to one of the fashionable hotels. You are out of place here in this rambling old ruin."

"Not half so much as you are," Kitty replied.

"I am never out of place. I can live comfortably in the fields with the peasants, in cities in extravagant hotels. My mind is always at one height. Where the body is does not matter much."

There was a subtle haunter in the voice. It subdued Kitty's inquisitiveness.

"Sometimes," said Kitty, drying the final tear—"sometimes I am afraid of you."

"And wisely. I am often afraid of myself. I always do the first thing that enters my head, and generally it is wrong."

"Not with the brand of cigars you are smoking, 30 cents each."

"No; we can't bail them out, but we can ease up their bills till money comes from home. Not one of them by this time will have a watch. O'Mally will remain sober from dire necessity. Poor Kitty Kittigrew! All the wonderful shops and not a silver in her pockets!"

From her window Kitty looked down on the Campo, which lay patched with black shadows and moonshine. How not far from the house of Petrarch. The moon poured broadly upon it. The gondola poised there like sleeping swan, and the tide murmured over the steps.

Pompeo, seeing Kitty's gesture, avoided the gondola discreetly across the canal.

"No, no, Pompeo!" La Signorina spoke in Italian. "I have told you never to go near that house without express orders. Straight ahead."

Conservatives in The West

Are Now Powerful Enough to Start A New Daily Paper
in Regina.

Ottawa, January 16.—As an evidence of the recent remarkable growth of Conservative sentiment in the West, a new daily newspaper of a high class has been started in Regina. It will support Mr. Haultain and Mr. Jordan, and their platforms. In its first issue "The Province" says: "As to our 'confession of faith,' let there be no mistaking where our political faith lies for the present at least. It is in the Conservative party, which has laid deep and broad the foundation upon which this great consolidated structure has been erected. Believing as we do that the province of Saskatchewan should be placed on an equal footing with the other provinces of the Dominion, we cannot do otherwise than support the Conservative party, which stands pledged to take Saskatchewan from the 'rental' class and place this province upon the same basis as the other Canadian provinces. It will be our endeavor to take a broad view of public affairs generally, according to the principles where we consider it is warranted, and applauding meritorious effort regardless of the political party whence it emanates. In carrying out such a public policy, The Province is happily free from corporation entanglements which in some cases influence or control journalistic utterances. A clause in our charter provides that no railway or other corporation can directly or indirectly hold any interest or stock whatever in this company—a provision which has been lived up to strictly in the organization of the company. This leaves it free to discuss public questions on their merits and without regard to corporations or class interests."

A Poem From The West.

God, give us men! A time like this demands
Strong minds, great hearts, true faith and ready hands—
Men whom the lust of office does not kill;
Men whom the spoils of office cannot buy;
Men who possess skill and a will;
Men who have honor, men who will not pollute the air, or lie;
Men who can stand before a demagogue,
And down his treacherous flatteries without winking or shrinking;
Tall men, sun-upward, who live above the fog in public duty and in private thinking.
For while the rabble with their thumb-worn creeds
Mingle in selfish strife—let freedom weep.
Wrong rules the land, the wrong man in seat, and wailing justice weeps.
In the above poem is the spirit of autonomy. The rabble must be ruled by God-given saviours. The demagogue must be put down. The people's will must not be followed. The many are a rabble. The few are needed to live above the warm mass of humanity. If the many go against the few, why the few must fight the many.

In this poem there are two sentiments: intermingled so that they are made to appear as one. These two sentiments are, first, good must be done; and second, the rabble or common people are not fit to do good. Therefore, the few must take it upon themselves to do good against the will of the mob. This spirit has been the reaction-ary of all times. The individual with the feet notion that he is a tall, sun-crowned creature starts out to do good. He desires to impress his idea of the good, the true and the beautiful upon the mob. This is what he terms doing his public duty. He cultivates the idea of his mission. This is what he terms private thinking. Combining the two, he endeavors to bring mankind to his conception of things, by reason, if possible, by autocratic methods if necessary. Now freedom is letting people do as they want as much as possible. So when the tall sun-crowned men get working overtime on their mission, freedom weeps. Corruption permeates our whole social and political fabric, wrong rules the land and waiting justice sleeps. This poem lays upon the common people the injuries resulting to humanity from the few who get a bee in their bonnet that is two sizes too small, that they are tall, sun-crowned men who live above the fog.

Men like this make a great promise. Go about talking to themselves about their neighbors, till they actually believe they heard it while on a journey to the city in the far-away.

The man that talks to himself should have rest from his office, for he hears a lot of silly remarks about you and I.

I might quote a short poem of Robert Burns on the roadway with apology, but Burns had or said nothing of our dangerous bridge and corduroy.

J. A. BRICKEL,
Leslieville, Alta.

The Calgary Albertan quotes Mr. McLeod, formerly general manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia, as claiming that twenty-five per cent of the chartered banks of Canada had failed in twenty-six years. Why not invest your savings in Alberta land which has troubled and quadrupled in value in the last ten years, and the end is not yet. Buy a farm from Geo. F. Root.

The Farmers at Ottawa.

(Uncle Zack in Toronto News).
To redress their wrong,
Eight hundred strong,
The stalwart farmers came.
Their demands they made
For a freer trade.
No bum political game.
Give us that, they cried,
For which you sighed
In the days of ninety-six.
That Free Trade plank,
No wrong since sank,
As deep as the River Styx.
We will have it now,
Or we'll raise a row,
Our Western land to boost,
What can you say.
Ere we go away,
But "Chickens come home to roost."
You used to squeal
At the tariff steel
And railed at all Protection.
What have you done,
Since the battle won,
In that ninety-six election?
Is it robbery still
For Financier Bill
To raise the tariff high,
And were you sincere
In the currency year,
In your pre-election cry?
SIR WILFRID'S REPLY.

He scratched his head
As the moments sped,
Assumed his manner bland,
Asked of the crops,
The wheat and hops,
And shook them by the hand;
Of the weather spoke,
And the newest joke,
And Cook's discovered pole;
Of the pumpkin pie,
In the days gone by,
That fed his hungry soul;
Of a lovely dance
In the land of France,
In the year of Jubilee,
And the Ark around
On the Ararat ground
In the midst of the heaving sea;
Of the distance far
Of the Polar Star
And the fortune Sheldon made.
But never a word
Said the sly old bird
In the promise of Free Trade,
For his campaign cash
Would go to smash
If the trusts would angry get,
If they pull the string
Ere the end of spring.
We'll have tariffs higher yet.

Talk of The Town.

Nearly Every One in Albion, Mich.,
Praises Mi-o-na, the Money-back
Cure for Indigestion.

Albion, Mich.—The people in Albion are elated to an unusual extent because of the many and remarkable cures which have lately been made by Mi-o-na, a dyspepsia cure with a world-wide reputation. Everybody is endorsing Mi-o-na. Here is what some respected residents say:
Mrs. E. C. C. says: "Mi-o-na cured me of a stomach trouble that had bothered me for a long time."
W. H. Mott says: "I had doctored for months without help. I used Mi-o-na and since using it three years ago I have been free from the distress."
Mrs. Emma Overy says: "For months I had dyspepsia, had stomach distress, pains and nausea. Nothing I used relieved or cured till I used Mi-o-na."
Gaetz-Cornett Drug & Book Co., the druggists in Red Deer, sell the wonderful dyspepsia cure Mi-o-na for 50 cents a large box, and they think so well of it that they will give you money back if it doesn't cure.

George H. Duffus of Robertson St., Fort William, a C. P. R. fireman, says: "The water gauge of my locomotive burst and scalded the whole left side of my face terribly. I had a box of Zam-Buk in my pocket, which I was using for a sore on my lip, and when I had recovered from the first shock of the accident, I produced the balm and had it applied freely to the scalded parts. I was suffering acute agony, but within a wonderfully short time Zam-Buk gave me ease. I was able to continue my journey and upon reaching home, I obtained more Zam-Buk and continued the treatment. Zam-Buk acted wonderfully well, and in a few days had the wound nicely healing. I don't know anything so fine as Zam-Buk as a healer of burns, scalds, cuts, and similar injuries, which workers are so liable to, and, in my opinion, a box of Zam-Buk should be kept handy in every worker's home."

Zam-Buk will also be found a sure cure for cold sores, chapped hands, frost bite, ulcers, blood-poison, varicose sores, piles, scalp sores, ringworms, indented patches, habit eruptions and chapped places, cuts, burns, bruises, and skin injuries generally. All druggists and stores sell at 50c. box or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, upon receipt of price.

A. B. Pound, of Provost, who was very ill with blood poisoning, is better.

James Mann has returned from his trip to the east. Mrs. Mann will return later on.

Andy Morrison, of Edwell, left last Sunday for a visit to Vancouver and other B.C. points.

Judge Legg and F. S. Simpson, Clerk of the Court, visited Provost to hold court last week.

Harry B. Hill, of the real estate firm of Latimer, Bottorill & Hill, was in town Monday last.

The annual general meeting of the Memorial Hospital will be held on Friday evening, Feb. 3rd, the date having been postponed from Jan. 20th.

Dick Bleay has been authorized to sell the goods and chattels of Mr. Strachey, late of Lethbridge. The sale will take place at Evans at an early date. See lists.

George Ball, night constable, has been seriously ill with pneumonia. He was some better yesterday. W. Piper and W. Hadley were also seriously ill last week.

The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church will serve a supper on Thursday evening, January 26th, at 6 o'clock. After supper there will be a short program of music. Admission: 50¢; children under twelve, 25¢.

Henry Jamieson, the noted Holstein breeder, has recently sold thirty head of this well known breed of cattle to farmers throughout the province, having shipped two fine heifers recently to T. L. Corbett at Medicine Hat.

Dick Bleay, of Evans, was in town on Monday for the first time in five weeks. He has just recovered from a severe illness, the result of an abscess in the throat which nearly proved fatal. We are pleased to see him around again.

Councillor Carscadden left for Calgary Sunday evening. He was joined Monday evening by W. E. Payne, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Brumpton and the Misses Brumpton, and the party left for the coast where they will spend a couple of weeks. They will visit Los Angeles before they return.

J. R. Davidson, the new Publicity Commissioner for Red Deer, and his charming bride, stopped off Monday on their return from the coast. They will pay a short visit to friends in Wetaskiwin and will return with their effects next week to locate in Red Deer for good.

Baythreimer & Sons are moving up the premises lately occupied by Mr. Hummer as a jewellery store, and expect to move their meat business to this shop on Monday, Jan. 30th. They are also erecting a solid storage plant to enable them to handle meat with greater success during the coming summer.

Robt. L. McIverson, for some time one of the popular members of the C.P.R. staff here, has severed his connection with the company and has taken a position with the Bawit Collieries Co. He will be missed by the Fire Brigade and the Young People's Union of the Presbyterian church, as he was an active member of both organizations.

BUY A FARM OF THE OWNER

To enable me to give better attention to other business matters, I am offering the following described Property at a sacrifice price and on most liberal terms, viz., 25 per cent cash and balance in 5 equal annual payments at 6 per cent interest.

No. 1—S.E. Qr. 19 and N.E. Qr. 18-37-26 w. 4 m., 9 miles south-east of Red Deer.

A splendid Half Section of fine level land, fenced and cross-fenced; all in time and wild hay; poor building, splendid neighborhood; will make an ideal farm. C.P.R. survey one mile south, Alberta Centre one mile north, building now. Sure to be a town near. Very little brush. 330 acres can be broken with steam plow. Price $20 per acre.

No. 2—S.W. Qr. 28-38-1 w. 5 m.

40 acres under cultivation; fenced; some timber; one mile south of Sylvan Lake, a lovely body of water 14 x 4 miles in extent, splendid beach, most popular summer resort, many cottages; gasoline mill and row boats galore. Alberta Central building on the N.W. 1/4 of this section; Canadian Northern building between this land and the lake. Sure to be one of the good towns here, and this land will make an ideal home, or is suitable for subdivision. Price $25 per acre.

No. 3—N. Half 18-43-22 w. 4 m., E. Half and S.W. Qr. 13-43-23.

The best of them all. The best piece of land that I have owned in Alberta and as good as I have seen, 300 acres under cultivation, balance hay, and it is hay, too. No waste land. Too much cannot be said of this place, and it must be seen to be appreciated. It lies just below the neck of land dividing Battle and Red Deer lakes, and will have a railroad some of these days. This will be sold as a going concern if desired. 2,000 sheep, 12 horses, machinery, etc. Machine $8,000 farm residence just completed. Price $30 per acre.

No. 4—E. Half and N.W. Qr. Sec. 11-39-21 w. 4; 1-12 miles from Erskine, 9 miles W. of Stettler.

All fenced. This is a beautiful piece of land practically clear of brush, just the kind an American would buy. Public range for 200 cattle. One of the best cheese factories in the province at Erskine, if one favors dairying. Erskine is a wide-awake, go-ahead town, and is growing rapidly. Canadian Northern Railroad 3 miles south. Will have a market town there. Price $12.50 per acre.

No. 5—Sec. 27-35-21 w. 4.

A splendid section overlooking the Red Deer river, showing one of the most beautiful views on the river. This is level lying, table land, and will make one of the good farms in Alberta. 550 acres can be broken with a steam plow. Alberta Central survey 3 miles south; C.N.R. 7 miles east, already built. Price $12.50 per acre.

No. 6—W. Half 36-38-15 w. 4; 4 miles from Veldt, 10 miles from Castor, 7 miles from Halkirk; known as the Odell Farm.

100 acres under cultivation; splendid soil; plenty of hay; very little brush. All fenced. Large house; barn room for 25 horses; machinery shed, chicken house, hog pasture, good well; in all a first-class farm and first-class neighborhood. Price $20 per acre.
